Grant Aid to the tune of £250 for local Light Operatic Society

Wootton Bassett Town Councillors have made a £250 award to a local Society who submitted an application for funds. Members of the Wootton Bassett Light Operatic Society, WBLOS, were delighted to learn of their successful bid.

“We need a new set of black stage curtains, which are expensive,” said WBLOS, “and this award will be a great help.”

With a 33 year history in Wootton Bassett, WBLOS run at least 2 shows a year. Their next is a pantomime, Mother Goose, which will be staged at the Memorial Hall in January 2011. “WBLOS raises a lot of funds themselves, and we were happy to help them achieve their target a little quicker so they can continue to entertain the residents of Wootton Bassett” says Councillor Paul Heaphy.

If you are a local group or organisation that benefits the community in some way, and you would like to apply for a grant to boost your funds, just get in touch with Wootton Bassett Town Council at 117 High Street, or call 01793 850222 for an application form and guidelines.
